

Founded in 1901, St. Clement's School is one of Canada's leading independent schools for girls, boasting a dynamic and close-knit community of approximately 460 students from Grade 1 to 12. St. Clement's is renowned for its supportive, friendly environment and rigorous academic program, including an extensive Advanced Placement program. With 100% acceptance to top universities across Canada and around the world, our girls have the confidence to pursue their dreams and know that they can be successful.

Although rooted in tradition, St. Clement's School is uniquely innovative and creative, dedicated to fostering curiosity in our girls; uncovering and enhancing their passions; and giving them the courage to try new things.

Our faculty, just as our students, are passionate about their work and dedicated to creating and fostering a unique and nurturing environment. Located a short walk from Yonge and Eglinton, St. Clement's School offers an engaging and supportive work environment that celebrates diversity and creativity.

We invite applications for the full time, temporary role of:

French Teacher Junior/Middle School
